this latest disaster.

The wreck was caused by the first section of the White Mountain Express telescoping the second section of the Bar Harbor Express, while the latter train was just leaving a stop signal.
The Springfield division, on which the catastrophe occurred, is not equipped with block signals, but has the old-fashioned "banio" signals in place. These signals were condemned a year ago by the State Railroad Commission, which ordered block signals in their place.

BEVILLE.—MRS. MARTHA BOLLING BEVILLE, aged seventy years and eleven months, wife of John F. Beville, died Wednesday evening, August 27, 1913, 9:15 o'clock at her home, No. 1 South Beech Street, Richmond, Va., after an illness caused by a fall and confining her to bed for ten months.

Mrs. Beville was born in Lunenburg County, Virginia, and was a daughter of the late John Stith Bolling and Mary Irby Bolling.

Mrs. Beville was formerly of Amelia County, Virginia, but had made Richmond her home for three years. She was married February 23, 1882, and is survived by her husband, one daughter, Miss Mamie M. B. Beville, of Richmond; one brother, General Stith Bolling, of Petersburg, Va., and several nieces and nephews.

Interment was in the Bolling burying ground in Amelia County, Friday, August 29, 4 P. M. Pallbearers were Messrs. Wirt Robertson, John T. Burke, T. C. Harmon, Emmett Hamner, Aubrey Coleman, J. W. Coleman, all of Amelia; Robert A. Orr, of Petersburg, and Howard Gouger, of Richmond,

Services at grave were conducted by Rev. Frank Allen, of Hebron, Va. "Asleep in Jesus" and "Nearer, My God, to Thee," her favorite hymns, were sung.

"Sleep on, beloved.

God, to Thee, however sung.

"Sleep on, beloved,
And take thy rest,
We loved you well,
But Jesus loved you best."
